

Style Matters!

Target Group: Technical authors

Duration: 1 day

Course Overview: By improving consistency and eliminating some common problems, you can improve the quality of your texts and speed up the writing process. The course covers topic such as:

- Writing precise, concise texts
 - Register and tone
 - Word choice
 - Using modifiers correctly
 - Introduction to developing a house style guide

Course Methodology: In addition to classroom training, we offer our courses as remote training units. As our courses have a modular design, we can tailor our content to your location and working schedules. For example, we can offer regular weekly training sessions using video or telephone conferencing as an alternative to classroom training.
